Approved For Release 2005/11/22: CIA-	RDP80-00810A00420095 0003-

25X1

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

INFORMATION REPORT

This Document contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States, within the meaning of Title 18, Sections 793 and 794, of the U.S. Code, as amended. Its transmission or revelation of its contents to or receipt by an unauthorized person is prohibited by law. The reproduction of this form is prohibited.

	CONFIDENTIAL;
	COUNTRY	China	REPORT	* <sub>25</sub>
•	SUBJECT	Activities of Chinese Communist Army and Navy at Shanghai, Foochow, and Wenchow	DATE DISTR. 2 June 1954	•
			NO. OF PAGES 3	_
25X1	DATE OF INFO.		REQUIREMENT	25)
	PLACE ACQUIRED		REFERENCES
25X1	4.
	Shanghai
5X1	1. vesse	the following C ls were sighted in the Shanghai area:	Chinese Communist Navy	1 1
	a. I	ST
25X1	(	1) one naval LST at buoy N	ro. 40.	w v
	(	(2) Four naval LST's at Jukong Wharf, equi- was ten feet wide and of the type as s	pped with radar. The radar
				•
	*	里		• •
	h 7	.SM
	D. 1			•
25X1		three naval LSM's at Ju with dome-type radar.	kong Wharf; one equipped	•
25X1 25X1	•
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	with dome-type radar.
	c. I	with dome-type radar. (2) three naval LSM's at Wo

three Chinese Communist Navy vessels, proceeding in  line single file with approximately one-half mile between vessels, were off the Whangpoo River approximately at the position of B buoy on an east- southeast heading, i.e., in the general direction of Ningpo or the Choushans. An LST was leading, followed by a frigate-type vessel, which was in turn followed by a Castle Class frigate. A sketch of the frigate-type vessel is contained in Attachment A.  3		CONFIDENTIAL
(2) one river gumboat at International Dockyard, under repair, with the hull painted in red lead. The gumboat was believed to be an ex-British vessel sunk in the Yangtze River and later salwaged.  d. Corvettes  (1) two Flower Class corvettes, equipped with dome-type radar, at Woosung Naval Wharf.  e. LCI  (1) three Chinese Communist Navy vessels, proceeding in line single file with approximately one-half mile between vessels, were off the Whangpoo River approximately at the position of B budy on an east-southeast heading, i.e., in the general direction of Kinggo or the Choushans. An LST was leading, followed by a frigate-type vessel, which was in turn followed by a Castle Class frigate. A sketch of the frigate-type vessel is contained in Attachment A.  3. the HO Ping armed with a Bofors-type gun at the stern and carrying Chinese Communist troops, cleared Wayside Wharf in Shanghai. The ship was painted grey. the ship was back at the Wayside Wharf in Shanghai.  Foochow  4. Three newly built ML's were alongside the wharf at Kwant'ou (N 26-08, E 119-3+). The wharf at Kwant'ou has recently been repaired. Three ML's of the same type were anchored about eight miles further up the Min River  Wenchow  5. At 1500 hours on 4 March a review of Chinese Communist troops was held at Wenchow. Three unarmed contingents participated: a contingent of approximately 186 persons, including 33 women, in Chinese Communist uniforms; a contingent of 330 in Chinese Communist uniforms, and a contingent of 100 in blue Chinese Communist navel uniforms, including 30 officers and petty officers. The town was placarded with, "Welcome to the Chinese Popple's
(1) two Flower Class corvettes, equipped with dome-type radar, at Woosung Naval Wharf.  e. LCI  (1) three LCI's followed by two ML's, in line one behind the other, patrolling Woosung Bar.  2. three Chinese Communist Navy vessels, proceeding in line single file with approximately one-half mile between vessels, were off the Whangpoo River approximately at the position of B buny on an east-southeast heading, i.e., in the general direction of Ningpo or the Choushans. An LST was leading, followed by a frigate-type vessel, which was in turn followed by a Castle Class frigate. A sketch of the frigate-type vessel is contained in Attachment A.  3. the HO Ping armed with a Bofors-type gun at the stern and carrying Chinese Communist troops, cleared Wayside Wharf in Shanghai. The ship was painted grey. the ship was back at the Wayside Wharf in Shanghai.  Foochow  4. Three newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were alongside the wharf at Kuant'ou (N 26-08, E 119-34). The wharf at Kuant'ou has recently been repaired. Three ML's of the same type were anchored about eight miles further up the Min River  Wenchow  5. six newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were anchored at Wenchow. At 1500 hours on 4 March a review of Chinese Communist troops was held at Wenchow. Three unarmed contingents participated: a contingent of approximately 186 persons, including 33 women, in Chinese Communist uniforms; a contingent of 330 in Chinese Communist uniforms; and a contingent of 100 in blue Chinese Communist navel uniforms; and a contingent of 100 in blue Chinese Communist navel uniforms; be the Chinese People's		- 2 -
d. Corvettes  (1) two Flower Class corvettes, equipped with dome-type radar, at Woosung Naval Wharf.  e. LCI  (1) three LCI's followed by two ML's, in line one behind the other, patrolling Woosung Bar.  2. three Chinese Communist Navy vessels, proceeding in line single file with approximately one-half mile between vessels, were off the Whangpoo River approximately at the position of B buny on an east-southeast heading, i.e., in the general direction of Ningpo or the Choushans. An LST was leading, followed by a frigate-type vessel, which was in turn followed by a Castle Class frigate. A sketch of the frigate-type vessel is contained in Attachment A.  3. the HO Fing armed with a Bofors-type gun at the stern and carrying Chinese Communist troops, cleared Wayside Wharf in Shanghai. The ship was painted grey. the ship was back at the Wayside Wharf in Shanghai.  Foochow  4. Three newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were alongside the wharf at Kuant'ou (N 26-08, E 119-34). The wharf at Kuant'ou has recently been repaired. Three ML's of the same type were anchored about eight miles further up the Min River  Wenchow  5. six newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were anchored at Wenchow. At 1500 hours on 4 March a review of Chinese Communist troops was held at Wenchow. Three unarmed contingents participated: a contingent of approximately 166 persons, including 33 women, in Chinese Communist uniforms; a contingent of 330 in Chinese Communist uniforms; and a contingent of 100 in blue Chinese Communist mayel uniforms, including 30 officers and petty officers. The town was placarded with, 'Welcome to the Chinese People's		(2) one river gunboat at International Dockyard, under repair, with the hull painted in red lead. The gunboat was believed to be an ex-British vessel sunk in the Yangtze River and later salvaged.
e. LCI  (1) three LCI's followed by two ML's, in line one behind the other, patrolling Woosung Bar.  2. three Chinese Communist Navy vessels, proceeding in line single file with approximately one-half mile between vessels, were off the Whangpoo River approximately at the position of B buoy on an east-southeast heading, i.e., in the general direction of Ningpo or the Choushans. An LST was leading, followed by a frigate-type vessel, which was in turn followed by a Castle Class frigate. A sketch of the frigate-type vessel is contained in Attachment A.  3. the HO Ping armed with a Bofors-type gun at the stern and carrying Chinese Communist troops, cleared Wayside Wharf in Shanghai. The ship was painted grey. the ship was back at the Wayside Wharf in Shanghai.  Foochow  4. Three newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were alongside the wharf at Kuant'ou (N 26-08, E 119-34). The wharf at Kuant'ou has recently been repaired. Three ML's of the same type were anchored about eight miles further up the Min River  Wenchow  5. six newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were anchored at Wenchow. At 1500 hours on 4 March a review of Chinese Communist troops was held at Wenchow. Three unarmed contingents participated: a contingent of approximately 166 persons, including 33 women, in Chinese Communist uniforms; a contingent of 330 in Chinese Communist uniforms; and a contingent of 100 in blue Chinese Communist naval uniforms, including 30 officers and petty officers. The town was placarded with, "Welcome to the Chinese Poople's three LCI's followed by two ML's, in line one behind the other, patrolling Woosung Ber.  2.	1
three Chinese Communist Navy vessels, proceeding in line single file with approximately one-half mile between vessels, were off the Whangpoo River approximately at the position of B buny on an east-southeast heading, i.e., in the general direction of Ningpo or the Choushans. An LST was leading, followed by a frigate-type vessel, which was in turn followed by a Castle Class frigate. A sketch of the frigate-type vessel is contained in Attachment A.  3.	1	e. LCI
line single file with approximately one-half mile between vessels, were off the Whangpoo River approximately at the position of B buny on an east-southeast heading, i.e., in the general direction of Ningpo or the Choushans. An LST was leading, followed by a frigate-type vessel, which was in turn followed by a Castle Class frigate. A sketch of the frigate-type vessel is contained in Attachment A.  3	1 and carrying Chinese Communist troops, cleared Wayside Wharf in Shanghai.  The ship was painted grey the ship was back at the Wayside Wharf in Shanghai.  Foochow  4. Three newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were alongside the wharf at Kuant'ou (N 26-08, E 119-34). The wharf at Kuant'ou has recently been repaired. Three ML's of the same type were anchored about eight miles further up the Min River  Wenchow  5 six newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were anchored at Wenchow.  At 1500 hours on 4 March a review of Chinese Communist troops was held at Wenchow. Three unarmed contingents participated: a contingent of approximately 186 persons, including 33 women, in Chinese Communist uniforms; a contingent of 330 in Chinese Communist uniforms; and a contingent of 100 in blue Chinese Communist naval uniforms, including 30 officers and petty officers. The town was placarded with, "Welcome to the Chinese People's	( 1	line single file with approximately one-half mile between vessels, were off the Whangpoo River approximately at the position of B buoy on an east-southeast heading, i.e., in the general direction of Ningpo or the Choushans. An LST was leading, followed by a frigate-type vessel, which was in turn followed by a Castle Class frigate. A sketch of the frigate-type vessel
4. Three newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were alongside the wharf at Kuant'ou (N 26-08, E 119-34). The wharf at Kuant'ou has recently been repaired. Three ML's of the same type were anchored about eight miles further up the Min River  Wenchow  5.  Six newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were anchored at Wenchow.  At 1500 hours on 4 March a review of Chinese Communist troops was held at Wenchow. Three unarmed contingents participated: a contingent of approximately 186 persons, including 33 women, in Chinese Communist uniforms; a contingent of 330 in Chinese Communist uniforms; and a contingent of 100 in blue Chinese Communist naval uniforms, including 30 officers and petty officers. The town was placarded with, 'Welcome to the Chinese People's	X1 X1 X1	and carrying Chinese Communist troops, cleared Wayside Wharf in Shanghai.  The ship was painted grey. the ship was back at the Wayside
E 119-34). The wharf at Kuant'ou has recently been repaired. Three ML's of the same type were anchored about eight miles further up the Min River  Wenchow  Six newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were anchored at Wenchow.  At 1500 hours on 4 March a review of Chinese Communist troops was held at Wenchow. Three unarmed contingents participated: a contingent of approximately 186 persons, including 33 women, in Chinese Communist uniforms; a contingent of 330 in Chinese Communist uniforms; and a contingent of 100 in blue Chinese Communist naval uniforms, including 30 officers and petty officers. The town was placarded with, 'Welcome to the Chinese People's		Foochow
Wenchow  5		E 119-34). The wharf at Kuant'ou has recently been repaired. Three ML's six newly built ML's <sup>3</sup> were anchored at Wenchow.  At 1500 hours on 4 March a review of Chinese Communist troops was held at Wenchow. Three unarmed contingents participated: a contingent of approximately 186 persons, including 33 women, in Chinese Communist uniforms; a contingent of 330 in Chinese Communist uniforms; and a contingent of 100 in blue Chinese Communist naval uniforms, including 30 officers and petty officers. The town was placarded with, "Welcome to the Chinese People's	,	Wenchow
	&lt; 1	six newly built ML's were anchored at Wenchow.  At 1500 hours on 4 March a review of Chinese Communist troops was held at Wenchow. Three unarmed contingents participated: a contingent of approximately 186 persons, including 33 women, in Chinese Communist uniforms; a contingent of 330 in Chinese Communist uniforms; and a contingent of 100 in blue Chinese Communist naval uniforms, including 30 officers and petty officers. The town was placarded with, "Welcome to the Chinese People's
	:
	. :

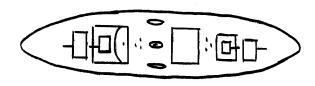

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL,			25X1
	- 3 -		25X1

ATTACHMENT A

Estimated length 330-340 feet.

CONFIDENTIAL 25X1